Creswick Angling Club

Mark Patterson with his Catch of the Day

During the Creswick Angling Club's opening weekend, anglers were competing for the Stephen Perry Memorial Shield.

Well done to Mark Patterson who caught this fine specimen brown trout weighing 2730 grams at Lake Toolondo. Lake Toolondo (also known as Toolondo Reservoir) is located north-east of the Grampians region, between the towns of Horsham and Hamilton.

Obituary Mrs Marjorie White

Following a brief illness Mrs White passed away on 6 November, 2017.

At a private funeral at St Andrews Church on 9 November, Marj's long life was remembered by her family and a few very close friends, and tributes were paid to her life of dedicated service to her family, her church and to the community.

An RSL service honoured her commitment to her service in the Army, to the work and traditions of the RSL and to Legacy.

Marjorie White - Fourth Generation Creswickian

The eldest child of Robert and Emma Harris, Marj was a fourth generation Creswickian. Her great-grandfather, Henry Dixon built the shop and residence at 32 Albert Street in 1876 where Marj was raised. Her father was a well-known hairdresser whilst her mother was the baker of Harris's legendary pasties and pies at No.30. Marj, being the eldest of two daughters and a son, assisted in the shops from an early age. Many hungry families existing on 'the Sustenance' during the Depression years were fed on Harris pasties, often the price going 'on the slate' – never to be collected.

Marj attended Creswick State School to grade 8 during the great Depression. School days were enlivened by involvement in the Victoria Street Methodist Church, Sunday School, Choir and Tennis Club. Summer holidays were spent at Calemben Park with the Swimming Club. She gained a Bronze Medallion for swimming, diving and life-saving and, at age fifteen in December 1939, received the Valour Award for rescuing a man from drowning.

Following her first job as a shop assistant at Coles Ballarat Bridge Street store, Marj was employed by Creswick Shire at the Kingston Shire Office as a stenographer/clerk in 1939. Shire Secretary, Walter Massey, who encouraged her to take private tutoring in Ballarat to hone her job skills became Marj's mentor.

With the outbreak of WWII, Marj and friends formed the Creswick Girls' Patriotic Younger Set to raise comfort funds for soldiers overseas. This included Saturday night dances in the ANA Hall (Australian Native Association, now the RSL Hall), involvement with the Centenary Ball committee and church functions in what was to become a lifetime devotion to her church. By 1940 the Shire had moved to Creswick Town Hall with a heavy work-load due to extra war related issues. On turning eighteen in 1942, Marj sought leave to join the Women's Army but the then Shire Secretary, Mr Wilkie, would not release her from what was termed a reserved occupation.

The sinking of the hospital ship Centaur off the Queensland coast in 1943 with the loss of 350 on board, prompted

Marj's second request to leave. Successful this time she joined the AWAS. After qualifying in Army Ordnance and Administration at Darley, Marj was posted to Bandiana (near Wodonga) Vehicle Park as Secretary Corporal to Major Gerald McKellar, later Senator. In Marj's words, 'After three months training Miss Pat Nolan to fill my job, I was finally enrolled on my 19th birthday, in August 1943. Kitted out in khaki, included the unheard of... trousers ...on three shillings and six pence (35c) a day.'

In March 1945, Marj married fiancé, Don White, who served in the RAAF. Previously Don had worked as a builder with this father Eric at Pasco's and after the war as a bus driver for Davis Bus Lines, driving the early workers and school buses while also working as a builder with VicRail.

Peacetime and the return to civilian life brought four children and the development of Marj's lifetime commitment to family, church and community affairs. Her involvement in the 1950s, along with Don, included helping to build the Scout and RSL Halls, (with handmade concrete bricks, after work and at weekends), catering with the RSL Auxiliary and extensions to the Bowling and Golf Clubrooms. She was also involved in the establishment of the Toddlers' Pool at Calemben and the Kingston Pony Club. Marj's major achievement was her persistence and work in the founding of the Pre-school Centre in St John's Hall, Napier Street in 1959. For the first four years Marj was the foundation Secretary there. Her contribution was recognised by being invited by the Creswick Shire to open the new Napier Room at the Pre-School Centre, Victoria Street in 1991.

The cost of educating a growing family prompted Marj to supplement the family income by writing for the Ballarat Courier for nine years, providing continuous Creswick news items for two pence per line and ten shillings for a Box Brownie photo! Her articles and photographs were delivered to the Courier by the train from Creswick to Ballarat. Her writing continued in the former Central Country Times, and the Creswick District News.

In 1965 Marj began as Office Manager at Homecrafts

Marjorie White - Fourth Generation Creswickian

Electrical Store with the Good Guys, Barry Foss, Ballarat, then as Manager for thirteen years. After years of bus travel, she learned to drive, aged fifty-four. In 1978, Don's health collapsed and Marj retired. Following the deaths of her son Neil in 1981 and husband Don in 1983, Marj used the building of her house at 65 Drummond Street with her architect/builder son Robin, as therapy. Subsequently Marj came under the care of Legacy. She joined other local war widows in starting the Creswick Laurel Club, a satellite of the Ballarat Laurel Club. Marj had an abiding interest in the RSL and was involved in the placement of the three memorial stones and associated garden in front of the RSL Hall.

She also took up water-colour painting with many of her paintings now hanging in homes around Australia and New Zealand. Always a music lover, she played the electronic organ and gave Sunday morning recitals at John Curtin Hostel (now John Curtin Aged Care).

Marj's craft work continued with knitted socks, crocheted rugs and baby clothes for family and charity stalls. Few groups or worthy causes in the district have not been touched by her work or generosity. Her feature articles for RSL Magazine Mufti and other publications continued to keep Creswick and district achievements before the public. She was also a volunteer with the Visitor Information Centre.

The CDN team would like to pay tribute to a very gracious community-minded lady, confidante, friend and helper to so many individuals and community projects. Sincere sympathy is extended to Marj's family and friends on her recent death.

CRESWICK MUSEUM

Next year will be significant for celebrating events that took place 100 years ago.

For ANZAC 100 we will have two exhibitions. Opening after Easter the ANZAC exhibition, Far from where the Golden Wattle blooms, will feature images taken by Caelli Greenbank of the graves of the WWI men honoured on the Fallen Soldiers Memorial (now known as The Cenotaph), together with the Museum's images and their stories. The second ANZAC exhibition will feature the story of the Shire of Creswick's Avenue (name changed to Kingston's Avenue), and the end of the WWI.

The other 100 year event the Museum will recognise is Norman Lindsay's The Magic Pudding, which was published in 1918. The exhibitions will last from 14 July to 14 October, 2018. As part of celebrating that event there will be a Children's Festival during the September school holidays which will include children's photography and an art competition. More details later about the Children's Festival.

The Museum Committee of Management would like to thank the volunteers of both the Museum and Research Centre for their generous support. The Museum would not be able to function without their time and expertise.

The Research Centre will be closed from Friday, 22 December 2017 until Friday, 6 January 2018. Merry Christmas to all readers of the Creswick District News from the Museum's volunteers and we hope to see you in 2018.

Kingston Friends of the Avenue

After much hard work from the committee and with thanks to Peter Rickard for his research, the Obelisk was installed by Les and Matt from Ballarat Memorials before the Remembrance Day Service. The State Government Department of Premier and Cabinet Veterans Affairs branch funded this project. An information board was installed with funding from a Hepburn Shire Council Community Grant. Thanks go to Ed Murphy for his work in preparing these successful submissions.

During the year the Friends meet regularly with Hepburn Shire Council. Special thanks to Mitchell Hogg, Parks and Open Space Coordinator, Bruce Lucas, General Manager of Infrastructure and the work teams.

The Open Gardens on 18 November was a huge success with over 500 people visiting the three beautiful gardens. Thanks again to the gardeners, the volunteers and all who attended. The entertainment by The Roundabout Folk Band was greatly appreciated. Shirley of Snake Valley won the gate prize, kindly donated by Olicartia and Creswick Nursery in Miss Northcott's Garden.

It was standing room in the Kingston Fire Station for the launch of Peter Rickard's book Sentinels of Service - Volunteers of the Kingston Avenue of Honour. Louise Staley, State MP for Ripon, the Hepburn Shire Mayor John Cotrell, and Councillors Henderson and May attended. Alexandra Tascas, President of the Ballarat RSL sub branch and Michael Clark, Secretary of the Creswick/Smeaton sub branch were amongst the eighty guests. We are grateful to Dr Robert Webster OAM, State President of the Victorian RSL for undertaking this task. Heather Leishman presented copies to local schools, libraries, museums and to Allan Grant from the Shrine of Remembrance. Books are available, cost $35, from the Creswick Newsagency, thanks to the support of Robert and Rosemary.

It was ninety years on 18 November since Brigadier-General Pompey Elliott unveiled the Harcourt granite monument at the beginning of the Kingston Avenue.

would like to thank everyone who has assisted Lions over the past year in one way or another. Also a big thank you to everyone who has bought a raffle ticket, sausage or Christmas Cake or attended a Lions function, your support means that we can help others in the community.

Since putting the last item in the CDN we were saddened by the tragic death of Carmel Mitchell who had in excess of forty years' association with our club as a Lions lady, Lioness and over the last eighteen years as a Lion, serving as President, Secretary and Treasurer in that time. Her contribution will be sadly missed and we express our condolences to Graeme and family.

The final fund raising activity of the year, the Lions Christmas Raffle, $2 a ticket, will give you a chance to win the Rocking Horse (valued at approx. $2000), a Christmas hamper, or a Lions Christmas Cake and bottle of wine. The Club thank the Creswick Men's Shed for making the magnificent rocking horse.

Bumps in the Night (and Day)

We recently moved into a house in Creswick. It had two wood burning fires and gas central heating – more than enough to keep us warm throughout winter.

The first night we lit the fire in the lounge – a wood burner fitted into the fireplace. The fan was noisy and so from then on we used the freestanding fire in the family room, topped up when necessary with the central heating.

After a few days, there was a banging coming from the fire in the lounge. We opened the door and no sign of anything, so put it down to the wind. When we had visitors and they heard the banging, we just said, 'it's ghosts- there's nothing there'.

A few weeks in, we had some fierce winds and the cowl on top of the chimney blew off. Barry went up onto the roof to put it back and noticed that the flue didn't reach to the top of the chimney and said 'that must bang about as it's not fixed'. We are going to do major renovations and decided that because we're never likely to use that fire, we would one day take it out. So, up on the roof again and Barry pulls the flue out – about 12 feet long. 'That's fixed the noise' we said to each other. That night we sat in the family room watching TV and the banging started up again – even louder than before.

A week on and we had an afternoon with nothing planned. 'Why don't we pull the fire out and see what it's all about', I said. Not as easy as we thought. Lots of bricks had to be chipped and with two crowbars and a lot of heaving, we finally moved the firebox out. Here's what we found behind - Mother and baby possum, now living outside where they belong.

THE ART OF LIVING

By Craig Barrett

We live in a world of art and poetry!

Watch the clouds. Look up – look away for a minute – then look up again. Your last vision of the clouds has already changed to something new. It happens so quickly.

As I look out my window to the east, an enormous thunderhead towers over Creswick and district.

One cannot but be in awe of its beauty, its majesty and its power. Someone is going to get a really good dump of rain out of that ..... unless it just floats on by.

The cloud shape is spectacular. An anvil waiting for the hammer strike. The colour breathtaking – cream, violet, prussian blue and yellow ochre, even a touch of crimson. What a privilege to witness. It will change or be gone in a minute.

I am transfixed watching it change shape and colour as I write and draw.

Yes, I am an artist. I moved to Creswick from St Kilda on June 20 2016. That was the week it snowed here – then it rained for pretty well three months!

I love my move to Creswick.

I have lived in rural Victoria before – at Wandiligong (near Bright), and indeed a very bleak winter in Daylesford! On both occasions I have taught art (painting and drawing) to adult students through the Council of Adult Education. I was always surprised at the response of students who have grown up and had their family in the area, but never really 'seen' it.

Yes, there is a hell of a lot to see in St Kilda, but the seeing in country is different.

Everywhere I go I find I am absorbed into the natural world. Rocks captivate me, soil captivates me. I can sit and watch ants for hours. At this time of the year the wildflowers captivate me. In country we often think of as harsh, the most beautiful, delicate orchids are blooming right now. Sometimes you have to almost get to ground level to see them.

The galahs in my yard as I write ..... their beautiful colours - white head and rose pink front and perfect grey plumage – what an extraordinary but simple colour scheme. The Rainbow Lorikeets – where do you start with combo!

The real heroes for me are the Yellow Tailed Black Cockatoos, (missing here now – where do they go at this time ?) – the way they glide on through like Sunderland bomber planes ..... all the while chattering to each other.

As I'm drawing or bushwalking or fishing - or just sitting and listening to a symphony of birdsong and frogs .....

I am loving my new life in Creswick.

Creswick Garden Lovers Weekend

The Town was Buzzing

Local amateur gardeners, artisans and green thumbs came together to open their private gardens once again. Now in its fourth year, this event was the biggest yet with over 3100 garden visits to six private gardens. A coach with thirty-five people came from the Orange Garden Club as well as visitors from all over Australia.

The Garden Lovers Weekend is organised by Business & Tourism Creswick with funding support from Hepburn Shire Council. The purpose of the event is to provide an economic boost for local business by promoting our town and region. Profits are used for local Creswick and district projects.

Individual gardens enjoyed up to 700 people exploring and enjoying the creativity and dedication of our talented local gardeners. Commercial Gardens also participated, assisting to market the event and in turn enjoy extra patronage from garden lovers to the Garden Lovers Weekend.

Commercial partners were Lambley Nursery, Overwrought Sculpture Garden & Gallery, Newlyn Antiques & Cottage Garden Nursery, Bells Water Gardens, Misty Downs Nursery and Olicartia. The Red Fox Café mounted an art display featuring floral art.

The private gardens were: Margaret's small courtyard garden, Charnwood, featuring exotic and native plants, Ophir, a quirky Italianate garden, Hedgerow with delightful cottage gardens, Noonameena, a large and unique country garden and Shirley's garden showcasing an amazing array of roses, perennials and rare plants

The Creswick Garden Club was a community partner again this year and held their annual Flower Show in the Town Hall with plant sales as well.

The town was buzzing with local businesses reporting increased business over the weekend. The accommodation venues enjoyed visitors staying two days (or more), some cafes recorded up to sixty per cent increase in business. A general comment made was that the locals (and some businesses) were surprised to see so many visitors in Creswick.

Planning has already started for next year's Creswick Garden Lover's Weekend to be held on 10/11 November, 2018. The organising committee is looking forward to growing the event again incorporating ideas, suggestions and experience gained from this year's event

Creswick Garden Club

Hello fellow gardeners, The Club members have had a very busy last few months of the year and are all looking forward to a break.

Thank you to all those involved in helping with the running of the Flower Show, it was a successful weekend. The Town Hall was full with beautiful craft, Floral Art displays, flowers, plants and preserves. Thank you to the judges, Anne van Beveren for her Floral Art classes prior to the show. Sue Craven and President Phyllis Wright for all their organization and running of the show. A big thank you to those who ran the plant stall. A great result and we look forward to next year.

Christmas lunch went well, with forty-six people attending. A lovely day and all exchanged posies from our gardens. Thank you to Greg Block for his generous donation of some Cybidium Orchids to give out on the day.

The next meeting of the Garden Club in February will be an informal meeting where the calendar of events for 2018 will be handed out. There will be a luncheon, cost is $5 per person. Please let us know if you will be coming. Phone Phyllis on 5345 2514 or Leanne on 0437 518 159

FIRE READY : Remove dry grass, leaves, and loose bark around your house.

Creswick Brass Band Success at Mt Gambier

The Band had a very successful trip over the border in November to the Mt Gambier competition, winning the D Grade section overall, and winning the best Stage March in D Grade. The Band came second in the Street March, and won the accolade of Band of the Year. That success came with lots of fun too, with the Band dressing up in a Christmas theme for the Mt Gambier Christmas Parade, and the Solo Cornets dressing down into their night attire for their rendition of Mr Sandman!

The great thing about the Mt Gambier comp is that there is prize money, so the Band can invest in some more instruments.

The Band would also like to thank both the Creswick Oasis Club, and the Creswick Senior Indoor Bowls Group for their kind donations during November. Their money will go to providing Creswick Youth Brass with more instruments as the group grows in number.

As I'm writing this, five of our juniors are preparing for their instrumental exams which are happening in early December, so we wish Sorrell, Lucan, Samuel, James and Alexander all the best. We also acknowledge the work Katrina and Fran have put into these students to help them achieve their goals.

Carols by Candlelight

The Band is again running Carols by Candlelight, at 7.30pm, at the Doug Lindsay Reserve on 16 December, and we'll be out and about during the festive season, including special appearances with Mr and Mrs Santa Claus.

RSL News

Beersheba Centenary

The Creswick-Smeaton Sub Branch was saddened by the death of Marj White. Marj served with the Army in World WarII and, following that service, was a stalwart of and tireless worker for both the RSL and the community over many years. We convey our condolences to her family.

The Beersheba Centenary Commemoration Dinner was well attended. Guest speaker, Phillip Bradley, gave a detailed talk about the Light Horse in the Palestine Campaign in the First World War. The Exhibition put on by the Historical Society was also a success. The Creswick Light Horse Troop provided fully kitted riders and horses on the weekends as a living exhibit; people could get up close and personal. A real drawcard.

The Poppy Appeal was, as always, well supported by the Creswick community raising nearly $4000 all of which goes to help veterans and their families. Past purchases by the RSL have included a Hi-Lo bed for a veteran in Calembreen Lodge and a portable oxygen concentrator for a veteran's partner in the John Curtin Aged Care facility.

Remembrance Day Services were held both at the Creswick Cenotaph and Kingston Avenue of Honour. Attendance at each venue was excellent. Thanks to all those who helped before, during and after these services. The turn-out of the Fire Brigade in uniform added to the sense of occasion. Special thanks to the Creswick Railway Workshop Association (CRWA) for the loan of the chairs, Susie Koene for playing the bugle calls and Mr and Mrs Powlett of The Laurels at Learmonth for the laurel leaves for the wreathes. Also to the Creswick Bakery for the refreshments.

As always, it was pleasing to see children from the Creswick, Creswick North, Mt Blowhard and Newlyn Primary Schools making a contribution to the Service.

Creswick Capers

End Of Year Happenings

As the year draws towards the end, there are many major events happening at Creswick Primary School that bring the community together. These events range from transition activities for the pre-schoolers and Grade Six students, Grade Six Graduation, Keyboard Concert, Whole School Lunch, Year Two camp and a Thank You to Volunteers Morning Tea.

One of the traditional annual community events that continues to grow is the Jogathon. This year in perfect conditions, the 190 students, some older ex-students, parents, siblings in prams, friends, a few pets and others participated. For two hours the students showed resilience by continuing to run/walk around the school block which may sound easy but for many of the parents it was a struggle keeping pace with the younger legs.

Eight laps!

The course around the school block is on paths, has tight corners and in some cases over uneven surfaces. For many of the children their aim was to run some and walk some, while a few had greater targets to achieve. Several children managed to complete twenty-seven laps which equates to nearly 19 km.

Best Wishes

To the thirty-one Grade Six children graduating this year, we wish you all the best next year as you move off to twelve different secondary settings.

From all at Creswick Primary School, we wish the community a safe and happy Christmas/New Year.

Ron Sawyer, Principal

St Augustine's News Farewell to Year Six Students

As the year draws to a close it is timely to say goodbye to the school's year six students, Jet Bliss, Ella Burns, Sienna Cooke, Harry Donovan-Clancy, Lachlan Elsworth, Gemma Laursen, Charlie Martin, Noah Murphy, Carson Oldaker, Thomas Steenhuis, Kaylah Wright. We thank them for all they have brought to our community and wish them well in their future endeavours. As the year six class leaves St. Augustine's community, a new group joins. The 2018 foundation class is welcomed as they begin a new journey with our community.

To all who have followed our journey across the twelve months, many thanks. The Christmas spirit reminds us of the need to be generous of heart.

'At this festive season of the year, Mr Scrooge,' said the gentleman, taking up a pen, 'it is more than usually desirable that we should make some slight provision for the poor and destitute, who suffer greatly at the present time. ... We choose this time, because it is a time, of all others, when Want is keenly felt, and Abundance rejoices.'

Charles Dickens (A Christmas Carol)

As we all know there are many forms of 'poor' and 'destitution' in our communities, so let's look after each other this Christmas season.

Enjoy the Month

Terry Brennan, Principal

Creswick North Primary School Busy End of Year

On Friday, 17 November there was a terrific turn out for the Junior School Council Disco organised by the students who, with decorations, transformed the multipurpose room. Mrs Julia Walker supported them and did a great job as MC.

The first Transition morning for the 2018 Foundation students was full of fun activities supported by their Buddies. It was pleasing to see the children settle into their new learning environment and we look forward to seeing them again soon. There are still spaces available for our 2018 Foundation intake. Please contact the school as soon as possible on 5345 2012 if you would like to enrol your child.

Middle and Senior classes walked to the Creswick Hub to participate in an interactive session about Cyber Safety. This session, delivered by Senior Constable Mina Martin from Victoria Police, was informative and gave students and parents some useful strategies to use both at home and school.

In November there was a fantastic day at Sovereign Hill as part of the Christmas in the Colonies program. One of the benefits of a small school is that excursions can be enjoyed as a whole school. The children enjoyed the Christmas activities they made and were able to bring home. Thank you to our dedicated staff for working with and supporting students that day.

The Year 5/6 students headed off to the PGL Adventure Camp Kyneton for three days to participate in a range of outdoor activities including canoeing, raft building and a mud run. Sounds amazing! Staff are finalising assessments in readiness for writing reports. I would like to thank all teachers for their determination in ensuring that reports detail the growth and development of each student at Creswick North Primary School.

Acting Principal*

Let's DANCE!

Val Lawrence and Geoff Parsons preparing the raffle and door prize draw.

Just because you can't dance doesn't mean you shouldn't dance. This is the motto of the Creswick Ballroom Dancing Group, who once again put on a fantastic afternoon of wonderful music, dancing, laughter, raffles and giveaways on 28 October. The afternoon tea, so generously provided by group members and patrons, was magnificent.

All proceeds from the Group's dances are donated to the restoration of the hall. The Creswick Ballroom Dancing Group would like to thank all those who attend and support us through donations for prizes and raffles. These include the following: Smokeytown Cafe – dinner; Red Fox Cafe – lunch; The Farmer's Wife Boutique - Monte Carlo prizes for gentleman and lady; Davies and Rose Rural & Hardware - useful tools for the person in the shed; The American Hotel – wines, and Creswick FoodWorks – a huge hamper door prize.

Thanks go to Helen Cook, who creates the hall decorations, and to Margaret Fullwood and Val Lawrence who provide beautiful flower arrangements as door prizes. Thank you to all the members of the dance group who help set up the hall and work solidly in the kitchen to provide afternoon tea, hot and on time.

There is dancing all over Victoria nearly every night of the week. Follow Midvic Dances on Facebook to keep up with all the dances held in the Bendigo to Ballarat to Echuca districts.

FAMILY VIOLENCE HAS NO GOOD DAYS.

Family Violence stems from men who think they are better than women. Men who exercise control; and misuse power. And they might think it's only their wife or partner they're harming, and that their children are fine. But they're not. In fact the violence their children are witnessing or hearing is just as damaging to them, their futures and their future relationships.

Pavilion Arts — A Marvellous 2017

This has been a very active year for Pavilion Arts & Sustainability in Creswick. Who will forget the magic of the sight of so many beautiful Japanese lanterns, or the huge lantern which was constructed at St. Augustine's and needed four carriers? Then there was palpable community spirit as Tim Drylie and the Seven Hills Singers led the assembled crowd in singing We are Australian. As if this wasn't enough, there ensued the spectacle of boats alight and flaming, and the phoenix rising from the flames.

In 2018 help will be needed to repeat the event which was made possible this year with assistance from the Creswick Lions Club, Transition Creswick, the Aquatic Centre members and the Creswick & District Community Bank® Branch.

You may have seen the student works in the shops and Bank. This was a lead-up to the 2018 Creswick & District Art Exhibition. Held in the Scout Hall in November, all visitors could see the range of extremely talented (sometimes renowned) artists living in the district. The diversity of exhibits was astounding. The work by Budding Artists from all four district Primary Schools was especially commended by Merle Hathaway, who opened the Exhibition. As with mature artists, the children's works were diverse in content, and all art teachers should be commended for the range of skills their students have shown. Many thanks to all who contributed to the success of this Exhibition.

At the recent AGM of Pavilion Arts, two new Committee members were elected – Bruce Kronberger and David Mellows – thus increasing the numbers of artists involved. We welcome new members and interested persons. Come and meet us in 2018. See our Facebook page, or email pavilionarts3363@gmail.com

Compiled by Creswick Museum

December 4 1917

Last Tuesday evening a pleasant time was spent at the A.N.A. hall by the members of Miss Spinner's Physical Culture Class and their friends, ere breaking up for Xmas vacation, and it was difficult to judge whether the onlookers or the performers found the greater enjoyment.

December 7 1917

Mr. R. T. Clarke, of Havilah Estate, Glengower, has been very successful in his exhibition of merino sheep at agricultural shows. At Daylesford last week he secured all the prizes in those classed and did the same at Kyneton. He sold the ram that took the champion award at Kyneton at a high figure to the Dookie Agricultural College for stud purposes.

December 11 1917

In specifications issued by the Public Works department for works to be carried out at the Tourello school and teacher's residence appears the following clause: - "Snake – Remove several sheets of iron from roof, search for and kill snake and ceiling and afterwards refix iron, making it waterproof."

December 14 1917

There is a good deal of grass growing in the Creswick Shire Park plantation and in the plantations on the Smeaton, Kingston and Spring Hill reserves, and persons desirous of cutting same are requested to apply at once to the shire engineer (Mr. W. H. Gore).

December 18 1917

In connection with the concert to be given on Christmas night in aid of Creswick Hospital, the combined choirs will meet at 8 o'clock next Saturday night, in the town hall, for the final practice.

December 21 1917

The Springmount Sports Club will hold its annual sports and races on Christmas Day – Tuesday next – and a most enjoyable outing is promised those who pay a visit to the Mount. The gathering will take place in Mr. P. Hackett's paddock, off the Dean road, which has been obligingly placed at the disposal of the club.

December 28 1917

Allendale- at the Allendale police court on Wednesday, before Mr. W. Harris, P.M., Alexander McDougall, of the delicensed Moorookyle Hotel, was charged by Sub- Inspector Nicholson with having on his premises a quantity of liquor for unlawful purposes, and that, having same, he held more than was necessary for reasonable purposes. ... The defendant denied selling any liquor on the premises since the hotel closed. Dismissed.
