

The Gallery Lounge at Billy's Bar

We invite you to the opening of our next exhibition

David Mellows - A Collection of Works

Thursday 12 July, 6pm onwards
Drinks and canapes served

The Gallery Lounge is a new art space located at Mercure Ballarat with an aim to provide a space for local artists to exhibit their works.

Our latest exhibition is a collection of Creswick based artist, David Mellows' work. Having the opportunity to hang in a large room with a vast wall is perfect to bring out some of the large works by David of the past decade. Local sourced images are alongside those of travels, interstate and international.

The exhibition will be on display until 19 August.
